ASSIGNMENT

AGREEMENT between DCI Credit Services, Inc., a North Dakota corporation, hereinafter referred to as "DCI" and _____, hereinafter referred to as Credit Grantor.

For value received, Credit Grantor, does hereby assign, transfer and set over to DCI, and it assigns all right, title and interest in, and to any and all sum or sums of money now due reflected on the account statement, and any future account statement delivered to DCI.

Credit Grantor gives to DCI, and it assigns, the full power and authority, for DCI's own use and benefit, but at DCI's own cost, to demand, collect, receive, compound, and give acquittance for the referenced accounts or any part of such account and any future accounts, and to prosecute and withdraw any suits or proceedings regarding said account. This assignment is for an indefinite term until canceled in writing by either party.

Credit Grantor represents and warrants the following:

1. That payment of the sums listed on the accounts is due and owing by the debtor(s) and is not contingent on fulfillment of any condition, past or future.
2. That they have absolute and good title to assign, transfer and set over the aforementioned account, and has not been assigned or transferred to any other party.
3. That they will immediately advise DCI of any occurrence that may in any way impair the validity of the account or tend to reduce the amounts of the referenced account.
4. That they do not believe that the account is past the Statute of Limitations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the client has signed this agreement effective as of the date listed.
